(see Non-GAAP Measures* below).

Stephen L. Silvestro, OptimizeRx CEO commented, "We delivered a strong fourth quarter, exceeding both consensus and internal expectations, with revenue of $32.2 million and adjusted EBITDA of $12.0 million. For the full year, revenue reached a record $109.4 million and adjusted EBITDA totaled $24.3 million, reflecting more than 20% margin and nearly $19 million in operating cash flow. Importantly, one year ago, we set a goal to become a Rule of 40 company and we have, in 2025, achieved this benchmark demonstrating the strength of our profitable growth model and the durability of our platform. We continue to be focused on becoming a sustainable Rule of 40 company over the next few years.

"We are beginning to see increased market volatility, driven in part by uncertainty surrounding Most Favored Nation (MFN) pricing. In response, we believe some customers are taking a more measured approach to discretionary spending and contract duration. While this dynamic may create some near-term headwinds, we continue to see solid engagement across our network and remain confident in the underlying demand trends supporting our business.

"Against that backdrop, OptimizeRx continues to play a mission-critical role for life sciences companies by enhancing brand visibility, reducing script abandonment, improving interoperability between disparate point-of-care platforms, and supporting the growing shift toward complex specialty medications. In addition, we believe advancements in AI will enable customers to reallocate marketing dollars from content creation toward reach and execution—areas where we provide differentiated value with significant ROIs, further strengthening our position over time."

*Non-GAAP Measures

In addition to the financial measures prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), this earnings release also contains non-GAAP financial measures. The reasons why we believe these measures provide useful information to investors and, for historical periods, a reconciliation of these measures to the most directly comparable GAAP measures are included in the supplemental tables that follow.

Although the Company provides guidance for Adjusted EBITDA, a non-GAAP financial measure, it is not able to provide guidance to the most directly comparable GAAP measure. Reconciliations for forward-looking figures would require unreasonable effort at this time because of the uncertainty and variability of the nature and amount of certain components of various necessary GAAP components, including, for example, those related to compensation, acquisition expenses, other income, amortization or others that may arise during the year, and the Company's management believes such reconciliations would imply a degree of precision that would be confusing or misleading to investors. For the same reasons, the Company is unable to address the probable significance of the unavailable information.

Definition of Key Performance Indicators

Top 20 pharmaceutical manufacturers: We have updated the definition of "top 20 pharmaceutical manufacturers" in our key performance indicators to be based upon Fierce Pharma's most updated list of "The top 20 pharma companies by 2024 revenue". We previously used "The top 20 pharma companies by 2023 revenue". As a result of this change, prior periods have been restated for comparative purposes.

Net revenue retention: Net revenue retention is a comparison of revenue generated from all clients in the previous period to total revenue generated from the same clients in the following year (i.e., excludes new client relationships for the most recent year).

Revenue per average full-time employee: We define revenue per average full-time employee (FTE) as total revenue over the last 12 months (LTM) divided by the average number of employees over the LTM, which is calculated by taking our total number of FTEs at the end of the prior year period by our total FTE headcount at the end of the most recent period.

RECONCILIATION OF GAAP TO NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES
(in thousands, except share and per share data, unaudited)

This earnings release includes certain financial measures not derived in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). These non-GAAP financial measures are measures of performance not defined by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States and should be considered in addition to, not in lieu of, GAAP reported measures. Additionally, these non-GAAP measures may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies. However, management believes that presenting certain non-GAAP financial measures provides additional information to facilitate comparison of the Company's historical operating results and trends in its underlying operating results and provides transparency on how the Company evaluates its business. Management uses these non-GAAP financial measures in making financial, operating and planning decisions and in evaluating the Company's performance. Management believes that financial information excluding certain items that are not considered to reflect the Company's ongoing operating results, such as those listed below, improves the comparability of year-to-year results. Consequently, management believes that investors may be able to better understand the Company's operating results excluding these items. Non-GAAP financial measures may reflect adjustments for items such as asset impairment charges, amortization, stock-based compensation, acquisition expenses, severance tied to executive departures and reduction in force initiatives, shareholder activist related fees, CEO search fees, other income, as well as other items that management believes are not related to the Company's ongoing performance.
